

INTENSIVE SUMMER ENGLISH AND GERMAN LANGUAGE COURSES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF BANJA LUKA FACULTY OF PHILOLOGY

Intensive English and German courses present an ideal opportunity to improve your knowledge of these languages in a pleasant environment and over a short period of time, and all that at an affordable price.

At the beginning, a candidate takes a placement test free of charge, in order for their language level to be established in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. With regard to it, we offer a full range of courses, A1 – C2, organised in groups of up to 10 candidates. The courses are given by professors and teaching assistants of the Faculty of Philology, University of Banja Luka. Each candidate is provided with the teaching material at the beginning of the course.

Duration of course: July 15 – 26, 2019

Classes are held Monday through Friday, with each day accommodating 6 45-minute lessons, that is, 30 lessons per week. The overall number of lessons is 60 for the whole course.

Contents:

- Dealing with current topics appropriate for the course level designated
- Developing communicative skills (listening, reading, writing, speaking)
- Active usage of language in everyday situations
- Application of various teaching methods
- Interactive learning using games

Leisure activities:

- Sightseeing tours and visiting museums
- Attending sports and cultural events in the city
- Organising international cuisine evenings
- Enjoying the concerts within the Demofest festival and the competitions at the World Kayak/Canoe Championship to be held in the city during the period designated
- Field trip and rafting during the mid-period weekend

Accommodation: hostels and hotels in the city area, not included in the course price

Course price: BAM 600.00 (EUR 300.00)

Deadline for registration: July 1, 2019

Registration via the following e-mail: summer.school@flf.unibl.org

